

"A few years ago I was abusing drugs, working the streets and living in a filthy apartment. When I became a mother I knew I had to make a change."

I was surprised to learn Kirkwood would remove any barriers to my success—child-care, gas money, rent. I just had to focus and work hard."

I really didn't think I was smart enough to finish school. Now I'm enrolled at Mount Mercy, am drug free, have my own car and live in a house with a swingset for my kids."
